MOHIGANS UPSET CINCINNATI WITHROW

It was the “Remember the Miners, Mountaineer Showcase” and it was a night to remember for the Mohigans. Morgantown dominated the Tigers from Withrow (9-3) for a 61-48 victory. Christian Allen came through with a huge effort as he led MHS with 20 points and 9 rebounds. “I’m starting to get the feel back for basketball,” he said. “I took a couple of years off and started back this summer and its just now starting to feel good out there.” Christian will add another dimension to this Mohigan team in their quest for a state championship. Coach Yes-ter will take his squad to Martinsburg on Tuesday in a clash of top ten teams. Catch all of the action on wemp.com if you can’t go.

BIG GAMES THIS WEEK

The Varsity and JV will play at Martinsburg (#2) on Tuesday and will play at UHS on Friday. A couple of other big games include: 9th at UHS and South at Bridgeport on Monday, South at Westwood and Suncrest at Mountaineer on Tuesday and Wednesday, Suncrest goes to St. Francis.

Suncrest 8th routs East

The “quick” Suncrest Seals 8th grade team made quick work of East Fairmont last week in Fairmont, winning 66-35. Leading the way for the Seals was Colby Gre-sak with 15 points and Kody Shearer with 14 points. The story of the night, might have been Antonio Morgano. “ Antonio was like a surgeon out there to-night,” said MHS JV coach Denny Crouso. “Kolby and Kody were excellent as well on the break.” That game leads Sun-crest into a big week this week as they will take on Mountaineer Middle on Tuesday evening and St. Francis on Wednesday evening. They are both road games and will be tough competition for the 8th graders.

South 8's Takes a Close One Over West

Coach Stancampiano was worried if his team would come out ready for their game last week at South. The answer is.... YES!. A 50-44 win was just what this team needed. Quintin Jordan turned in a strong performance with 29 points and numerous offensive put backs against the West Fairmont 3-2 zone. Brady Simmons handled the ball most of the night, slicing in between defenders to have several Assists. Big Elvin McNally added six points and Taylor Davis, Kenzie Melko and Jonah Thomas added two points each. South travels to Bridgeport and West wood tonight and Tuesday.
